This quarter we were busy preparing our Annual Report for our AGM on 11 December 2019.

At the AGM our existing management committee was re-elected unopposed and joined by new committee member, Fiona Gayler. The changes to our constitution were also passed and we are now in the process of taking steps to obtain Deductible Gift Recipient status. We have resolved our insurance issues for the time being but a lot needs to be done to secure our future. We have also submitted several grant applications.

Women's Court Support Service

We have renamed the "Women's Family Law Court Support Service" (WFLCSS) to the more succinct "Women's Court Support Service" (WCSS) Our database system has recorded 101 entries for women assisted by this volunteer service since it began operating in July and another 146 for those assisted by the main FLC service. We are grateful for our large team of volunteers, including a group of USyd law students, who make it all possible.

Workshops, Consultations & Events

Anna attended a round table on DV at Parliament House hosted by Trish Doyle MP, a WDVCAS tender consultation and a DV workshop at UTS and learnt more about how women's DV court support services are being compromised by their close relationship with police and other government agencies. Anna has written raising her concerns with Legal Aid and members of parliament. Anna also attended a briefing by Redfern Legal Centre in relation to the excessive and unlawful use of strip searching by NSW Police and together with Fiona and Ann attended the Sydney Peace Prize honouring the founders of the #MeToo movement.

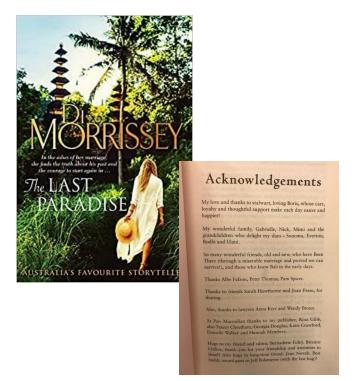

Recommended Summer Reading

For your radfem fix this summer we recommend this meticulously argued treatise by Susan Hawthorne, available from Spinifex Press.

Or this impressive 200,000 word tome by Denise Thompson on Masculinity & the Ruling of the World available free on the internet.

For something lighter, we note Anna received an acknowledgement from Di Morrissey in her latest book about a woman who discovers her marriage and her husband are a fraud.
